

Lupus Foundation of America, New Jersey Chapter, Inc.
150 Morris Ave, STE 102 • PO BOX 1184
Springfield, NJ 07081

T: 973-379-3226 E:info@lupusnj.org Website:www.lupusnj.org

These physicians hold certification or are eligible for certification by the American Board of Internal Medicine, subspecialty Board of Rheumatology of hold certification by the American Board of Pediatrics and have approved training in the subspecialty of rheumatology or had demonstrated a primary interest in rheumatology before Board certification was available. MOST PHYSICIANS ACCEPT SELF-REFERRALS. ALL PHYSICIANS LISTED PERIODICALLY PARTICIPATE IN CONTINUING EDUCATION IN RHEUMATOLOGY.

The physicians have provided all of the information listed. The Lupus Foundation of America, NJ Chapter does not otherwise make any representations as to their competence.

LUPUS FOUNDATION OF AMERICA, INC.
NEW JERSEY CHAPTER
PHYSICIAN REFERRAL LIST
as provided to us by the Arthritis Foundation.

This listing provides a partial listing of New Jersey Rheumatologists and physicians who are interested in the treatment of lupus.

These physicians:

Hold certification or are eligible for certification by the American Board of Internal Medicine, subspecialty Board of Rheumatology.

Or

Hold certification by the American Board of Pediatrics and have approved training in the subspecialty of rheumatology.

Or

Had Demonstrated a primary interest in rheumatology before board certification was available.

The listed code is used to indicate the age categories of patients seen by listed physicians:

- a- Practice limited to adults (13 and over)
- c- Practice limited to children (12 and under)
- a/c- Practice includes both adults and children

* For most current listing of Board Certified Rheumatologists check out:
www.rheumatology.org