

Pamela Thorpe, MD, FACP

- 13 year survivor of lupus
- Philadelphia native
- Received her Medical Degree from Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia
- Board certified in Internal Medicine
- Primary care provider for 13 years at Cooper University Hospital in Camden, NJ
- Has worked in the pharmaceutical industry as a drug safety physician since 2007
- Many years of community education and outreach
- Active volunteer for the LFA, Philadelphia Tristate Chapter